

THINGS TO SEE AND DO:

- Fort Concho National Historical Landmark
- San Angelo Museum of Fine Arts
- Concho River Walk
- International Waterlily Collection
- San Angelo Nature Center
- Historic Old-Town Shopping, Restaurants, and Night Life
- San Angelo State Park and O.C. Fisher Lake: fishing, bike trails, hiking, camping
- Numerous area public access lakes/reservoirs: Twin Buttes Reservoir, O.C. Fisher Reservoir, Lake Nasworthy, O.H. Ivie Reservoir

ANNUAL EVENTS:

- San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo
- Lake Nasworthy Speed Boat Races
- Cactus Market Days
- Christmas At Old Fort Concho & Lighted Christmas Parade Along the Concho River

SCHOOLS:

- Three Head Start/Early Head Start Learning Centers
- Seventeen Elementary Schools
- Three Middle Schools
- Two High Schools
- Angelo State University

OTHER FUN FACTS:

- San Angelo is located in the Concho Valley, a geographical region of West Texas between the Permian Basin, Trans Pecos, Edwards Plateau and Big Country of Central and West Texas.
- Population of 100,450 residents.

LINKS:

<https://discoversanangelo.com> Convention and Visitors Bureau

<https://sanangelo.org> Chamber of Commerce