

FOREST FAST BREAK

Sustainability

Did you know?

To be truly sustainable, our forests must...

- 1 Provide diverse benefits, products, and services.

- 2 Remain healthy and resilient, through
Science + Forest Management

- ☒ Innovative Research
- ☒ Careful Maintenance
- ☒ Responsible Harvesting
- ☒ Multi-use Planning
- ☒ Reduced Fragmentation

- 3 Balance our current needs as well as the needs of future generations.

☒ Now ☒ Future

Sustainable forests are Healthy
Productive
Renewable

Name: _____

Quiz

FOREST FAST BREAK

Forest Sustainability

1

Name three reasons why we value forests?

1

2

3

2

What does “sustainable forest” mean?

- a. A forest that only provides habitat for wildlife.
- b. A forest that is only grown to provide products we use.
- c. A forest is healthy and cared for so that it can provide the benefits that we need today as well as in the future.
- d. A forest that is left alone to grow without the help of people.

3

True or False

To be truly sustainable, a forest must meet our social, environmental, and economic needs. _____

FOREST FAST BREAK

Forest Sustainability

4

Name three wood, paper, or forest products that you use every day.

1

2

3

5

True or False

An unhealthy forest can provide benefits just as well as a healthy forest can. _____

6

Place a ☒ next to the reasons a forest might be unhealthy.

☐

Too much pollution

☐

Invasive plants or animals

☐

Removing too many trees

☐

Frequent, low-heat wildfires

☐

Not enough space for plants to grow

☐

Human activity, like hiking and camping

☐

Lots of different kinds of plants and animals